

Snooze Alarm

Early to bed, early to rise
All it ever gives me is bloodshot eyes
Five more minutes, honey, hit the snooze alarm.

Pushing it once, pushing it twice
Push it till noon'd be mighty nice
Five more minutes, honey, hit the snooze alarm.

Five more minutes, five more minutes, five more minutes
Give me five more minutes, honey, hit the snooze alarm.

We go out, we do it right
I wish we hadn't done it on a Sunday night
Five more minutes, honey, hit the snooze alarm.

We got home, a quarter to four
Kept on dancing on the kitchen floor
Five more minutes, honey, hit the snooze alarm.

Seven in the morning and I'm ready to scream
I was right in the middle of a beautiful dream
I dreamed I was singing in a big ol' band
And didn't have to get up and go work for the man ....

There may be life after you die
But life before breakfast is a stinking lie
Five more minutes, honey, hit the snooze alarm.

Five more minutes, five more minutes, five more minutes
Give me five more minutes, honey, hit the snooze alarm.
